Spirit of the Games

- It is expected that teams will participate in a manner and a spirit intended for the Science Olympics. The aim of the Olympics is not to win at all costs, rather to demonstrate creativity, ingenuity and smarts.
- If it is felt by the judges that a team or some team members are not abiding by the rules in the true spirit of the competition, then the team may be warned, points deducted or removed from the competition.

Respect

- Respect each other
- Respect the space we are in
- Respect your team
- Respect other teams
- Respect classes in progress

Low Footprint

When we have left, no one will know we were here.

- No Garbage
- No Litter
- No Damage
